

WASHINGTON.

Passage of the Radical Omnibus Bill.

Apprehensions of the Moderate Republicans.

The Presidency

Reverdy Johnson as Minister to England.

ccc., ccc., ccc.

Special Dispatch to the Louisville Journal.

WASHINGTON, June 12.

RECONSTRUCTION.

The passage of the Omnibus Bill, admitting the outside States, or rather admitting the carpet-baggers, gives great uneasiness to the Republicans. They are afraid of Andy Johnson. They say that if he is sent to England, the Democratic house will have a great majority so to shape the power and patronage yet left in his hands as to risk the chances of the complete radical domination contemplated in the bill.

RESIDENTIAL.

Much of the "Chase movement" is pressure. Mr. Chase has some friends of his own, and all of the enemies of Mr. Pendleton to work for him. The idea of course is to divert the current from Pendleton. It would be queer if after all the convention finds itself unable to agree and is thrown back on the nomination of the present incumbent.

DIPLOMATIC.

The selection of Reverdy Johnson as Minister to England is generally looked upon as a good one. Mr. Stanley is spoken of as Minister to Austria in place of Cox, rejected. Two South American diplomatic posts will be vacated shortly, as I understand.

A DATE DENIAL.

Brownlow denies his telegraphic correspondence with Stokes. He does so because he knows that his dispatches fell into the hands of Ben Butler, who took care to destroy them.

FALMOUTH.

The Ninth Judicial District—Large Democratic Convention—Senate Nomination of Mr. Pendleton—Post-Pendleton Bill.

Special Dispatch to the Louisville Journal.

FALMOUTH, Ky., June 12.

The Democratic convention of the Ninth Judicial District, composed of the counties of Bracken, Campbell, Harrison, Kenton, Pendleton and Robertson, met this morning and organized, with Gen'l Dan'l of Harrison county, President, and Col. W. Todd, of Kenton, and W. B. Brattin, of Pendleton, as Vice-Presidents.

The following gentlemen were nominated: Circuit Judge—Jas. O'Hara, of Kenton. Criminal Judge—J. S. Boyd, of Harrison. Commonwealth's Attorney—Chas. Dunn, of Pendleton.

The convention was large and enthusiastic, and resolutions endorsing Pendleton were unanimously passed and voted.

Senators Henderson, Mr. Cutler, and the Tribune—Bids for Carrying the Overland Mail—Reverdy Johnson—Nomination of Mr. Pendleton—Post-Pendleton Bill—Secretary McMillan and Commissioner Rollins.

ASSOCIATED PRESS DISPATCHES.]

New York, June 12.

The Tribune says that O. N. Cutler, who is mentioned as successor to Commissioner Rollins, was present at the meeting of the Missouri delegation, when Cutler made the following remark to the delegation: "I am for the Republican party. If the President should be succeeded, and that the new administration is to be entirely of Radicals, and that Senator Henderson should have the command of the Post office, I am for Rollins."

To this proposition several members of the delegation replied that it was not the desire of the party, and Cutler rejoined simultaneously that it could be done. This is sworn to by several members. One of the most cogent argument by appointment of Pendleton.

The Tribune says that bids for carrying the overland mails were opened yesterday, by which it appears that Wells, Fargo & Co. and the American Express for the last four years, have lost all contracts, they being the highest bidders.

The President to-day nominated to the Senate Hon. Reverdy Johnson, Minister to England, and Mr. Pendleton, Collector of Internal Revenue for the First District of California; Alexander M. Mallon, United States Senator from New Jersey; and Senator, Associate Justice of the Supreme Court of Washington Territory; to New York, and Mr. T. C. Strong, of Indiana, Affairs for the Southern Superintendency.

The Letter of the Commissioners of Internal Revenue, Mr. Rollins, tendering the resignation of his office to the Secretary of the Treasury, his reasons therefor, was last evening returned to Mr. Rollins with the following letter:

The White Creek.

John Happy's happy burlesque under the title is to be again produced at the Academy of Music next week.

Description of Family.

A man named John Harrison was arrested by the police yesterday, charged with vagrancy and deserting his family.

Reserve.

The bodies of five hundred soldiers have recently been interred at Jeffersonville and taken to New Albany to be reinterred in the National Cemetery there.

Chancery Court.

Owing to the absence of Judge Pirtle the Chancery Court was not in session yesterday. The cases set for trial will have to remain over until next Friday.

Knock Down.

Miles Harned and Donny Sweeny took a walk on the corner of Preston and Main streets at about 12 o'clock last night. No cards.

A Greenhorn in the Desert.

Our friend Schenck, proprietor of that green tent in the desert, i.e., the Oasis, is giving to green sea turtle soup for lunch to-night. He's green for doing it.

Opera.

The agent of one of the Italian opera troupes now playing in New York was in the city yesterday making arrangements to give us some Italian opera sometime during the season.

Notices.

The investigation of the difficulty at the Oasis Saloon, referred to by us yesterday, proved that the master was unimportant, nobody, in fact, being seriously hurt. Officer Harvey, we are glad to learn, is quite unharmed.

Knock.

Joseph Clark, a queer fish, whose normal name is "benjamin," was found in the old grave-yard on lower Jefferson, making a desperate effort to sober up on Banningers. He was locked up in the Twelfth street station.

Another Committeeeman.

Fred. Haser, Esq., formerly Major of the 4th Ohio regiment, and Brevet Lieutenant Colonel, has been added to the State Executive Committee of the conservative soldiers and sailors' organization.

A Spicy Term.

Garland Tamm was committed to jail yesterday on a sentence of the United States Court for illicit distilling, which fined him $840 and ordered his imprisonment for six hours. He was in the dungeon just long enough to be able to appreciate the blessings of freedom and intense regret.

Peace.

The case of C. C. Crossen v. A. M. Wedell for $6,900, an account of which we published yesterday, was before the Common Pleas Court yesterday, and after the examination of a number of witnesses to prove that young Crouch disposed of his father's family jewels before his death, the court adjourned. The case will be continued until Monday, to-day being motion day in the Court.

Peace Worcester.

Eliza Young, a virgin of pugnacious habit, took it into her head yesterday to depopulate Eleventh street, from Main to the river, and was executing her purpose when one of her neighbors, who had hurried to intercept her, met her near Eleventh street, and swore out a peace warrant—returned with a constable, who condemned Eliza to a dungeon vile in the West End Station-house.

Picnic and Barbecue.

A grand Picnic and barbecue comes off to-day at Dr. McCleary's beach grove, 9 miles from the city, near the junction of the Preston street and Shepherdsville roads. The candidates will be their own judges, and the barbecue will be the chief attraction. The picnic will be on the grounds, and dancing and music will lend their charms to the pleasure of the occasion.

Progress.

Our beautiful city is growing larger every day. There is not a street in town upon which there are not from ten to a dozen buildings in process of construction. For the most part, these buildings are of brick, and are being erected by a variety of objects, including stores, manufactorys, humble and palatial dwelling-houses. Louisville is "spreading her wings," and a few years more of improvement equal to the few just past will make her the metropolis and wonder of the world, and the admiration of the world.

Father Lawrence Young.

We visited Father Young in the jail yesterday, and found him in good health and very comfortably housed in a room set aside for him by Mr. Thomas. He has been visited daily by a large number of friends, among them nearly all the men of the Catholic church of the city. He appears to be in good health, and in a few days will be released.

In Bankruptcy.

Last Wednesday night, a young man about seventeen years old, employed on the walkabout, was unable to pay his debts, and had to go into the hands of the sheriff. He had no money, and was forced to sell his coat and shoes, and had to sleep on the floor of the sheriff's office. He was compelled to go to the police office of the wretched condition of many of the pumps. We will be able to do that next session it will be still larger.

Our New Jails.

We give below a list of names of the contractors for the new county jail, all of whom are responsible and experienced men in their various departments of business.

The Plan.

The plan adopted for the building is the one submitted by the well-known architect of this city, Mr. Bradshaw, who will superintend its construction.
